

President's Message

Welcome to the 2017 Grande Prairie Encana Music Festival. The volunteer board has done a tremendous amount of work to bring this time of musical excellence to fruition. I would like to thank the entire Board for their time, expertise and dedication year after year - they truly help make Grande Prairie the "greatest place to be".

Our sincere thanks to the venue providers - without the donation of the facilities the festival could not take place. The College continues to be especially supportive and we thank them for their ongoing support.

The musical selections you will hear throughout the next few weeks are a product of student, parent, teacher and adjudicator interactions. I congratulate the students for wisely choosing to spend a large part of their free time in exploring and developing their musical talents; the parents for their encouragement, patience and financial expenditure; the teachers for nurturing and challenging their students; and the adjudicators for providing suggestions and constructive criticism that will enable the musicians to further broaden and develop their talents.

There are many sponsors and donors who support the Festival in various ways and have done so for many years. We extend our thanks to them for their commitment to the arts scene in Grande Prairie and area. We also thank the volunteers who make sure the daily sessions run smoothly during the three weeks - please recognize their efforts as you enter or leave a venue.

I am sure you will enjoy the wide array of musical selections that will be presented during the next few weeks. The highlight will be the Grand Concert that will be held at the College Theatre on Sunday, May 7 at 7:00 p.m. The concert will showcase only a few of the talented young people in our area and we thank them for participating this year. The Board extends congratulations to the hundreds of students who took part in the Festival this year - you are all winners.

MUSIC FESTIVAL HISTORY

The origin of the Grande Prairie Music Festival dates back to the "Women's Music Club" that functioned actively in the year 1921. This organization was influential in the promotion of music festivals in Grande Prairie and can be considered the founding member of the Grande Prairie and District Music Festival. The early individual organizers of the Festival in Grande Prairie included Mrs. F. Barber-Smith, A.E. Galway, and L.B. Yule, Superintendent of Schools.

1927 saw the first joint festival with Peace River, held in Grande Prairie on May 25th and 26th. Because of difficulty of travel, Grande Prairie resumed its own festival activities in the year 1932. From then on, the Festival was held annually. After 1945, when the festival became a non-competitive one, interest and calibre declined, and no festivals were held from 1949 -- 1951. Recorded history does not accurately portray the events that took place hereafter, save to indicate attempts at revival in 1951, success and revival in the years 1952 and 1953, and thereafter, inactivity until the year 1959.

In 1959, Martin Intscher undertook, with a renewed interest in the community, the re-establishment of music festivals, and with the assistance of the Allied Arts Council and the Grande Prairie School Board, the next festival was held in the year 1962. Annual festivals have been held since that date. The 1962 festival included elocution, public speaking, penmanship, dancing, drama, arts and crafts, in addition to the music entries, and was called the Grande Prairie Art Festival.

A number of organizational innovations were introduced from time to time to attempt to improve the quality and calibre of participants in the Festival, and in this respect, in the year 1960 arrangements were made to share the festival on a rotation basis with the City of Dawson Creek. Only one such Festival was held in Dawson Creek, in the year 1964. This Festival was called the Peace Country Art Festival.

In the year 1962, Grande Prairie joined the Alberta Music Festival Association and, through its affiliation with this association, has operated the festival for the benefit, not only of the citizens of Grande Prairie, but of the entire Peace River area. At this time, the name of the festival was changed to Grande Prairie and District Music Festival.

This festival would not be possible without the cooperation of the Grande Prairie Regional College and the churches and schools which offer their facilities free of charge. Some financial assistance comes from individual donors, local organizations and businesses. Administration and organization require hundreds of volunteer hours.

The end of 1998 brought us a major sponsor and we continue to be excited about this partnership. EnCana (formerly AEC) has not only donated funds to pay some of the operating costs of the festival; they have also donated a sculpture by Merv Bielish and a cash scholarship. This sculpture will remain at the Grande Prairie Regional College with a plaque resting in the trophy case honoring each winner of the trophy and scholarship. Winners will receive a photo plaque showing the presentation of the trophy to them. We are grateful for this sponsorship.

From its early beginnings as a small two-day festival, the Grande Prairie and District Music Festival has grown to become a two to three week event which ends with a final concert early in May.

The calibre of entries has continued to improve over the years and many young artists from this area have gone on to achieve provincial and national recognition.

GRAND CONCERT

GRANDE PRAIRIE REGIONAL COLLEGE THEATRE

SUNDAY - MAY 7, 2017 - 7:00 PM

Trophy/Award Presentation and Concert

ADMISSION: Free Will Offering

Grand Concert participants are suggested by the Adjudicators. The concert is programmed to provide variety, audience appeal, and to recognize excellence. Some performers may NOT have won an award.

The program has to be kept to a reasonable time, so it is not possible to include all winners. Often school choirs or bands are not able to perform at the concert due to other commitments by some of the members. Similarly, some individual award winners are not able to participate.

Thank you for supporting the Music Festival

The Annual General Meeting of the Grande Prairie and District Music Festival will be held Monday, June 19, 2017 at 7 pm at St. Paul's United Church.

Everyone is welcome to attend.
